TERMS OF REFERENCE (TOR) FOR FACILITATOR FOR THE TRAINING OF LAND LAWS AND LAND RIGHTS

BACKGROUND

Community Empowerment for Peace and Development West Nile (CEPAD-WN) is a voluntary nonprofit-making organization that works to resist violence, transform conflicts, and build peace in communities. Founded in 2014; by Ugandan women who have worked in conflict zone for more than a decade and are scholars of peace and conflict management. CEPAD-WN registered entity with the NGO Bureau, Arua district local government and a member of Arua district NGO forum, West Nile Humanitarian platform and the charter 4change Uganda working Group. CEPAD-WN believes in and fights for a nonviolent and peaceful society where every person has access to basic rights and a life in dignity.

The organization since its inception has worked with civil society organizations, particularly the youth, women, faith-based, refugee population and traditional structures in West Nile to transform conflicts, and to promote nonviolent and democratic principles. Based in Arua, Uganda, CEPADWN works with vulnerable groups and partners across the country to support individuals and organizations to enhance skills needed to transform violent conflicts and build bridges across ethnic, religious, and political divides.

CEPAD-WN with funding from Federal Foreign Office through IFA institute fur Auslandsbeziehungen is implementing Eighteen months project with the title “ Promoting Intercommunity Engagement (Dialogue) for Reconciliation, Peace and Social cohesion in Refugee Settlements in West Nile, Uganda” that is; Palorinya, Imvepi and Rhino Camp Refugee Settlements. Some of the activities of this project are, Project inception meetings, trainings, Community dialogues, Radio talk shows, Review workshops among others.

Therefore, CEPAD intends to organize a training to the communities (cultural and religious leaders, land lords, police, refugees and Sub-County land committee) about Land Rights, land laws and conflict transformation related to lands.

BACKGROUND OF THE ACTIVITY.

Land is central to the sustainable livelihoods of both refugees and host community households. For it is not just land per se but arable and grazing land on which they depend for their livelihood. As a result, any conflict over land impacts the households directly on the refugees and somehow on the host community. Land conflicts between refugees and nationals are a result of government policy of settling refugees in gazetted areas (Ahimbisibwe, 2013).

However, as the refugee situation became protracted, hospitality gave way to a competition for resources such as agricultural and grazing land (Ahimbisibwe, 2013). This has not been helped by persistent refugee flows from South Sudan resulting in increased prejudice against refugees. This is coupled with other problems observed in Rhino Camp (Tika Zone), such as growing land meditation; competition over land use and environmental and land degradation, competition for land between refugees themselves and host communities coupled with unclear land boundaries, as well as increase in price of land for rent.

Therefore, CEPAD-WN is planning a training on Land Rights and laws to help build consensus at the Zonal level on necessary actions for better protection and advancement of refugees and nationals rights to land that will result in an equitable and transformative change in the land sector. This will aid in the creation of a safe space for refugees of different social, economic and religious beliefs and backgrounds to dialogue with nationals and find amicable solutions to local challenges they face.
